

HERITAGE CARRIAGES PROJECT

FILM EVENING

Saturday 28 March 2009, 7.30pm
Crowcombe Village Hall

The West Somerset Steam Trust will be holding a film night in aid of the Heritage Carriages Project. We will be showing the classic film:

'The Train'

With Burt Lancaster.

Made in 1964 with full co-operation of French Railways, the film shows the theft of France's art treasures being foiled by French Railwaymen, led by Burt Lancaster. It includes unforgettable sequences including a train being driven through an air raid and a real train crash including several SNCF locomotives.

Tickets will be available from:
Blue Anchor Station House,
Blue Anchor,
Somerset
TA24 6LB

from 1st January 2009 at:

£7.50 (adults)

£5 (children 14 and under)

Cheques payable to 'WSSRT'. Please include an SAE for return of your tickets. Please note, there are ONLY 120 tickets available, so book early to avoid disappointment.

It should be a great evening.

The Bar will be open from 6.30 and at 7.30

